New Holiness Today Pastors Program

We put together a new Holiness Today Pastors Program that requires very little of your time, but will hopefully end up with more many families reading our wonderful magazine.

Here's how the program works:

1. You may promote Holiness Today through your bulletin. Simply order as many Holiness Today order forms as you need and insert them into your bulletins or worship folders. These will be sent to your free of charge. Please see the Holiness Today Pastors Program order form for the details.
2. You may order as many Holiness Today posters as you like to create some awareness within your congregation. We will send them at no charge. Please see the Pastors Program order form for details.
3. We can also send you a free Holiness Today DVD that can be played after church encouraging people to subscribe. The DVD has two videos of contemporary music and images that are targeting younger readers. Present the videos wherever your congregation gathers.

Church Group Subscriptions

Church group subscriptions are not going away. Your church may still purchase Holiness Today for each of its families and receive a consolidated invoice and renewal notice. Your price is only $10.00 per family which is a savings of $2.00 (20 percent) per subscription.

If you would like to start a Church Group Subscription today, simply click on this link to download a group subscription order form:

Contact Customer Service

If you are not sure if your church has a consolidated group subscription please E-mail Holiness Today's managing editor, Carmen Ringhiser, at holinesstoday@nazarene.org or call our friendly customer service department at 1-800-877-0700 (M to F, 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. C.S.T.)

2009 Church Renewal Campaigns

Some churches are still working on their 2009 renewal subscription drive. We are most grateful for all of your efforts. Please finish up on your renewal campaign and mail your checks and renewal orders to:

Holiness Today, P.O. Box 419527, Kansas City, MO 64141-6527

Telephone: (800) 877-0700

New Renewal Program

We are grateful for all the support you have given Holiness Today in the past. We wanted to lighten your work load during these difficult economic times. Churches no longer have to worry about the Holiness Today renewals-we only need your help with finding new readers.

We want to give a special thanks to all of the Holiness Today campaign chairs at the district and church levels. Your help was truly appreciated.

We are mailing the renewal notices directly to the subscribers' homes and they will mail their checks and renewal notices directly to the publishing house in Kansas City. The local Church of the Nazarene that is listed on the renewal form will still receive credit for the subscription.

We are grateful for all of your support.

Regards,

David J. Felter
